Title I Annual Principal Attestation of Fully Certified Staff Requirements

School Year 2023-2024

School: Edgewood Elementary

ESSA requires that teachers and paraprofessionals meet fully certified criteria as defined by the job description. Each district and school receiving ESSA funds must certify that all newly hired teachers and paraprofessionals working in Title I programs are fully certified. Under ESSA, every Title I principal must attest that the school is in compliance with this requirement and is making annual progress toward the following:

Each school operating a Title I program is required to maintain this form on file and the information must be made available to any member of the general public upon request.

1. X I certify that during the 2023-2024 school year, all aides/paraprofessionals are in compliance with ESSA, and IDEA Reauthorization 2004.

2. X I certify that during the 2023-2024 school year, all teachers are in full compliance with ESSA requirements.

3.     I certify that during the 2023-2024 school year, teachers are working towards full compliance with ESSA requirements. It is expected that all teachers will be in compliance by the end of the 2023-2024 school year.
